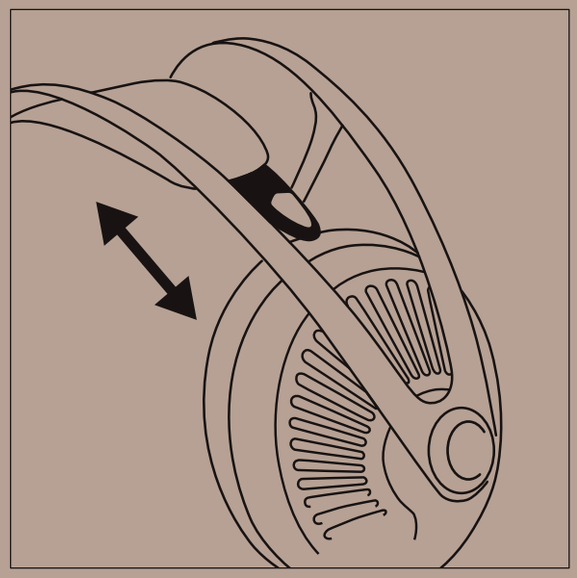
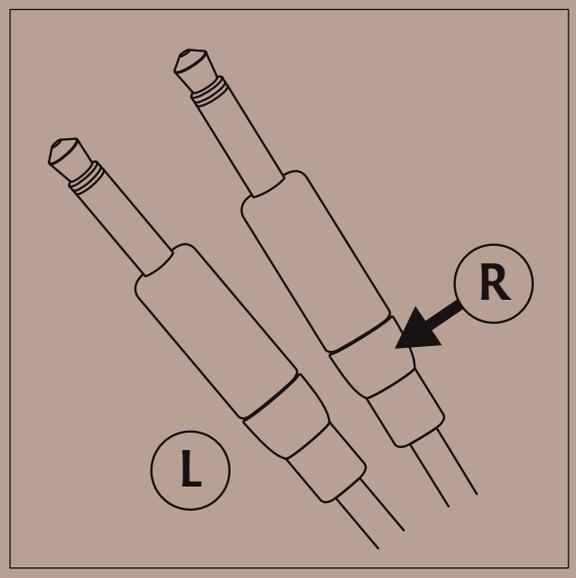
REPLACING THE EARPADS

To remove the earpads, gently pull them away from the enclosure, until you see the black rubber lip surrounding the earpad peel off the side of the earcup. To fit the earpad back on, place the aforementioned rubber lip of the earpad into the ridge between the earcup and the driver-plate. Start from one side, and slowly make your way all around, by carefully pulling the earpad outwards.



SELF-ADJUSTING HEAD BAND

The 105 Silva doesn't require manual adjustment for the size of the headband. The elastic mechanism inside the headband can stretch to fit any head size without any user input.



SYMMETRICAL HEADPHONES

The 105 Silva headphones are symmetrical. So Left and Right is determined by the L or R marked cable that you are using.
